Ability to perform the requirements of the position

As an employee you have the occupational health and safety responsibilities to not place yourself or others at risk of injury or harm. This means that you must inform your supervisor throughout the course of your employment of any health matter or injury that may, or will likely affect your ability to perform the requirements of the position (also referred to as inherent requirements of the position).

The University promotes the provision of assistance, aids and equipment (reasonable adjustments) to employees who require these to perform their duties. You are required to advise your supervisor/manager promptly if you require adjustments on account of illness, injury or disability, at any time during your employment.

For further advice regarding employee and employer rights and obligations around reasonable adjustments contact Equity and Diversity Services (telephone 6488 3873). For advice on modification to duties or equipment provision, contact the Manager, Injury Management and Wellbeing from Safety, Health and Wellbeing (telephone 6488 2784).

To help identify staff that require adjustments in their workplace and ensure that these are provided, please answer the following questions by ticking the relevant box.

1. Do you have a medical condition, disability or any impairment for which you require adjustment/s in order to perform the inherent requirements of the position?  Yes     No

If you have indicated that you require adjustments, an Occupational Therapist from Safety, Health and Wellbeing will contact you to discuss your needs.

- 2a. Are you currently, or have you at any time within the last five (5) years, been in receipt of payments/damages arising from a workers' compensation claim; third party insurance claim (such as a motor vehicle accident claim); disability claim for sickness, incapacity, disability, injury or impairment; or from any salary continuance insurance claim (or similar)?  Yes     No

- 2b. Is the claim currently open or the benefit continuing?  Yes     No

History of a prior claim will not in itself preclude appointment to the position. Under section 79 of the Workers' Compensation and Injury Management Act, if at any time when seeking or entering into employment a person wilfully or falsely represents themselves as not having previously suffered from a disability which is the subject of a subsequent claim, a dispute resolution body may, in its discretion, refuse to award compensation.

If the University has concerns about your ability to perform the inherent requirements of the position during your employment, it may direct you to attend a review by a medical practitioner, medical specialist or allied health professional.

HUMAN RESOURCES

SECTION 5 - AGREEMENT

I accept the terms of the Casual Employment Agreement (CEA) and agree to comply with the terms and conditions of the relevant Staff Agreement. I accept that payments will be made on submission of authorised timesheets.

Notice: I understand that the Agreement may be varied or terminated with one hour's notice on either side. I accept that there is no commitment to any further employment by the University.

I understand that the UWA Code of Ethics and Code of Conduct details the University's expectations for the behaviour of all staff, including staff on casual contracts. I understand it is my responsibility to acquaint myself with the codes of behaviour expected of while employed at the University.

I confirm that my total appointment(s) with the University does not total > 1.0 FTE.

I confirm that I will complete the Occupational Health and Safety On-Line Induction within 1 month of commencing as a new staff member.

I have completed the Declaration (page 2) and understand the inherent requirements of the role.

If illness or any other circumstance prevents me from performing a particular activity, I am required to advise my Supervisor.

I understand that as required under the Government's Superannuation Guarantee Charge legislation, the University will pay employer superannuation contributions on all earnings. The contributions are paid to the UniSuper Plan as required under the University of Western Australia Staff Agreements.

I declare that:

- i. I have answered all questions honestly.
- ii. To the best of my knowledge I am able to fulfil the inherent requirements of the position, or I will be able to fulfil the inherent requirements with the provision of reasonable adjustments.
- iii. I understand that incorrect or misleading statements or omissions may render me liable for termination of my employment or disciplinary action and/or negate any future claim for compensable injury or illness.

I authorise any medical practitioner, medical specialist or allied health practitioner that the University directs me to attend to provide information to the University, to enable it to determine: -

- i. Whether I am capable of fulfilling the inherent requirements of the position for which I have been appointed; and/or
- ii. To identify reasonable adjustments that the University can provide to enable me to fulfil the inherent requirements of the position.
